Web Minister: We have a website, the calendar is up to date, policies and forms will be added in the near future, the historian is scanning old Barony cookbooks. Please keep in mind, that if you have information or announcements to share, send it to the Web minister for the web page first! To reach the most people in the most efficient way our priorities should be: Web page first, Facebook second, email third. Facebook does not show everyone all new posts, and that info may be hard to find later.

Baron & Baroness:

Game Day was held Saturday January 26th with about 16 people. The next one will be Saturday March 23, just before Market Day. We have issued a challenge to all of you to try a new martial art! If you've been wanting to learn Archery or Thrown Weapons, or need a little motivation to pick up that sword, make this the year you do it! We want to see lots of participation at Champs. Upcoming events we plan to attend include: College of Three Ravens and Ice Dragon, the full list will be posted soon.
