Barony Yule and Winter Holiday Party

Very Important News!!!

Unto All The Denizens of The Barony of Thescore and To Our Friends...

Let it be here known that our Noble Barony will be Celebrating with the first Party of the Season at our Baronial Social Meeting, which will be held on Tuesday, the Sixth day of December of the Two Thousand Eleventh Year of the Common Era.

We shall be meeting at our usual time of One-half Past Seven of the Clock, and at our usual place, Faith Lutheran Church in Penfield on Browncroft Boulevard. There will be seasonally appropriate decor in place, though those who gather may add to the decor if they choose. ALL flames must be enclosed. Those who provide additions to the decor are requested to remove them when they leave.

Our Noble Baron, Aquila d'Athos is coordinating this wondrous event, and may be contacted with any questions not answered in this notice. baron at thescore dot org.

Our Proud and Noble Barony is generously blessed with excellent cooks, so there will be the adventure of a Pot Luck Feast! Please bring a dish to pass in keeping with the holiday traditions, remembering that there are NO NUTS to be in the building due to severe allergies of some of the children who attend the care and schooling at this church. Please also bring several copies of the recipe you use to share with those who are enjoying the food, and for informing those of us who may have allergies which dishes to avoid. It is a kindness to the clean-up crew to label your serving dishes and serving utensils so they get back to their owners, even if forgotten in the rush to leave. The known allergies in the Barony are Onions, Garlic, Turkey, Oats and some Gluten-Sensitivity, so a list of ingredients will be appreciated if you can not, or do not, wish to share your recipe. If you are bringing something purchased, please just bring a list of ingredients, and remember - NO NUTS!

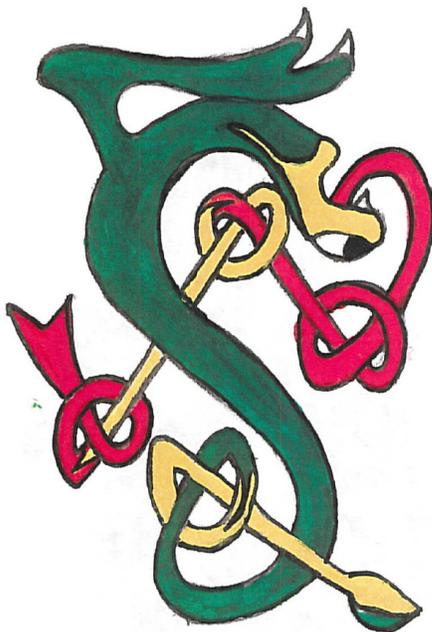

Giving and sharing are a strong part of the holiday tradition, but many of us are not as wealthy as we would like to be, and presenting gifts would be difficult, as would receiving gifts which we would not be in a position to reciprocate. Therefore, it has been resolved that the gifting tradition will be honored by presenting copies of favorite recipes, ancient or modern, or copies of instructions to create a cherished craft item, for distribution among our guests. As we do not have a count of those who will be attending, a minimum of 20 copies is suggested. The copies may be reproduced in any way with which you are comfortable and which is legible. The church is collecting returnable cans for one of their charities, so if you wish to also contribute to the community in this way, it is an excellent way to begin your holiday cleaning efforts.

This is a Mini-Event/Party, so please wear your comfortable Holiday Garb. We will be indoors in a heated room. If you want to bring and use your Feast Gear - great! It will add to the ambience, and save some of our precious natural resources. Please be sure to bring only enclosed flames if you are going to use candles. Your faithful Arts & Sciences Minister will be bringing a CD and Cassette Player so we will have musicians in attendance for your enjoyment, and dancing should anyone wish to engage in that activity. If you have music in either of those formats which you would be willing to share for the evening, please feel free to bring it with you. Martial activities will be forgone out of respect for the tradition of a Peaceful Holiday Season, just as was the case during the Medieval Period in Europe.

Children will be present, so this is a "G rated" party. Please do not bring down the Wrath of the Church on us by inappropriate use of alcoholic items.

If you have never been to a Thescorre Social Meeting, or if it has been a long time since you attended one, this is the Event of the Year and Not To Be Missed!

This is Your Barony, and can only be as much fun as You choose to make it. Your Friends and Baronial Officers look forward to seeing You on the Sixth of December.
