Adren cu Faol – Minister of Arts and Sciences

Good Gentles -

The Arts and Sciences are flourishing here in the Barony of Thescorre. We are having great success with our sewing days, many scroll cases are being made at our social meetings to house the wondrous scrolls our Barony creates in abundance. The Cauldron Bleu is meeting regularly and coming up with interesting topics for experimentation and discussion. Our drummers and dancers are trading the boards with alacrity and grace.

Everyone is encouraged to join in the event "A Little Song, A Little Dance". Excellent teachers and guides have been engaged to help us toward a finer expression of those arts.

Vivat to my deputy, Ysabelle, who is back from the Caid with information as to how our foreign cousins encourage the arts and sciences in the context of War.

Here ends the report of the Arts and Sciences Minister for the Barony of Thescorre in the month of October, 2012.

Foes and Friends Forever

Fridrikr Tomasson

This year, Her Majesty Kallista invited me to be one of her bards for the Known World Bardic Challenge at the Pennsic Wars.

The theme of the circle was Enemies and Friends , and this poem catches the theme, I think. It is written in English, in the dróttkvætt meter. The kennings are pretty simple.

Foes and Friends Forever

Battle joined by bitter bold foes crying old gripes - blood is let by blade-Tyrs blasting horns call fast spears.
Sword-storm's lightning seering seething helm-lines heaving -
Iron-gods' knights-errant
On field reddened yield not.

Day's heat on the hot field
hammers foes in gam'sons
drives the sword-tree droves drained of precious rains-gift.
Seek the helm-folk sacred sups of Odin's cup-streams.
Find they there the fiend-men
friends to glad-night's ending.

Joined by valor's gentle jumbling, spear-foes humbled
honor's love find intact.
Armored not gainst harm now,
point-din yields til pint-song
peals from laughing steel-oaks - spear-trees come from spar-storm sword-gods hug their war-friends.
