THE JARL'S DEATH
Fridrikr Tomasson

This poem is a poetic translation of an Old Norse poem, Endu Rima "Battle's End". It is in dróttkvætt. It has many kennings in it, most of which I leave the reader to puzzle out. The only one I'll give you is "Troll-woman's horse troop" in verse three. It is from one of several Old Norse kennings for "wolf/wolves" which are often represented as the troll or the giant's horse. This kenning means "the wolf-troop" or the Northern invaders. I hope you'll enjoy the poem.

Witnessed I wolf-feeder
wise of warriors quarrel Sternly blade Tyr storm browed striped swords edge with gore-gild.
Army Thor you offered Elder dragon fell play
gulls of battle, gallant good king you fed blood-feast.

Iron-fisted wolf-jarl attacked you, fame attractor
raiders found retainers
ready to make heads fly Wisest spear-point wielder won you victory's sun-burst
Low the ring trees laid you
Lord of men - gold-hoarder.

Troll-woman's horse troop attracted spear-play fractious Swayed the birches Southern sundered in edge-thunder.
Fell in life-flood's fullness friend of wound-gulls ended.
Suffered jarl-Thor sacred slain for victory's gaining.

Spied I sudden spear-flight severed war-garb hardened - Foemen ringed you fifty found you with Hirðmen rounded.
Shoulder high bore shield god steadfast in sword-headwind.
The branches of your breaking bring night fall to my bright soul

Aethelmearc Rattan Championship

Oyez, Oyez, Oyez! Their Majesties Timothy and Gabrielle have requested the attendance of all Heavy Weapons Fighters to attend the Aethelmearc Rattan Championship in the winter wonderland of the Barony of Thescorre. The site is the Perry Volunteer Fire Department Recreation Building, 67 Buckland Avenue Extension, Perry, NY, 14530. The site opens at 9 am and closes at 9pm. The site is damp.

The day is focused on the tournament to show the prowess of the fighters, so that Their Majesties can select the next Kingdom Rattan Champion.

French is spoken by many, and to some it is a favored time period. And so it shall be for this event.

What French influences have your Arts and Science projects flourished under? Do you have redactions using Early French Cooking? Does your illumination use exemplars from The Hours of Etienne Chevalier? Does your cotehardie catch the courtier's eye? You can show the Kingdom your "in-period" French flourishes by entering the A&S competition at Rattan Champs on Dec. 14 in Thescorre.

Their Majesties invite all artisans to display their work, and participate in this competition showcasing the influence of France, at Kingdom Rattan Champs. Documentation is limited to one page. The populace who will vote for their favorite keeping with the French theme of our event! More details to come.
