Sergeants, Yeomen, & Gallants - 2014

What is a "Sergeants & Yeomen & Gallants" Competition?

On October 18th, the Barony of Thescorre will hold a "Sergeants and Yeomen and Gallants" competition. This competition, which started in the Kingdom of An Tir, is a sort of "pentathlon" of SCA life. It was originally designed to find and promote fighters who were considered to be excellent candidates for the knighthood. As we run "S&Y&G" in Thescorre, we include all martial skills (fighting, fencing, archery, and thrown weapons) in the competition. The competition is open to anyone who chooses to enter. The categories that candidates are judged in are as follows:

- 1) Martial skills - the marshalls & those sergeants & yeomen present will watch to assure that that candidates prove their competence.
- 2) Tactics - candidates will take a test to determine if they have basic knowledge of battle tactics.
- 3) Games - candidates will be required to play & show competence in a number of basic games (draughts, nine man morris, fox & geese, hnaftafl).
- 4) Dance - candidates will be required to participate in & show knowledge of basic dances (hole in the wall, basic bransles & pavaues). Instruction will be offered.
- 5) Heraldry - candidates will take a test to determine if they have basic knowledge of heraldry & of regional & kingdom arms.
- 6) Performance - candidates will be required to sing a song or tell a tale.
- 7) A&S - candidates should bring an A&S piece to display.
- 8) Chivalry & Courtesy - candidates will be observed during the course of day to determine their chivalry & courtesy.

At the end of the day, Their Excellencies will choose who receives a belt, based on the competitions and Their observations during the day.

Wow! That's a lot of stuff to do in the course of a day. Becoming a Sergeant or a Yeoman or a Gallant is a rigorous process. Time to learn some games, learn some heraldry, learn some dances, brush up your A&S, and figure out what to perform!

I hope that MANY candidates will make themselves known.

In service,

Fridrikr, Sergeant of Thescorre & Coordinator of the "S&Y&G" competition.

Tentative Menu For Sergeants, Yeomen & Gallants

First course:

Salad of mixed greens with a white wine vinaigrette
Chicken
Chickpeas
Chicken liver forcemeats (stuffed cabbage dumplings)

Second course:

Pork sausages:
Chorizo
Butifarra
Longaniza
Pine nut meatballs
A medley of Root Vegetables
Bread (Pan de Pueblo, Caudeul, or de Pages. I haven't decided.)

A light pasta soup, to fill in the gaps before...

Dessert:

Apple pie

Drinks will be apple cider and water. With a pepper hot chocolate to accompany dessert.

Any special dietary needs please let me know -- either by email, pgkeleher@hotmail.com, or you can phone me at 585-309-1470. Much of the feast will be cooked as a maragato -- all in the same pot. I plan on four pots of 15 servings each -- one pot will be dedicated to beef versions of the sausages and a gluten free version of the dumplings.
